TONIGHT'S OPPONENT

The Dream (1-1) look to bounce back from a road loss against Washington, visiting the Chicago Sky (0-1) for their home opener.

After winning their season opener 87-86 double overtime victory against the Indiana Fever, the Dream fell to the Washington Mystics 77-71 on June 7 in the second of back-to-back games. Coco Miller led the way for the Dream, shooting 8-11 from the field en route to 17 points against her former team. Sancho Lyttle added 13 points off the bench. The Dream have been led early on in the season by forward Chamique Holdsclaw (17.5 points, 2.5 assists) and forward/center Erika de Souza (12 points, 11.5 rebounds). Rookie Angel McCoughtry has provided a spark off the bench, averaging 12.5 points and 5.5 rebounds per game.

The Chicago Sky look to rebound from their season opening loss to the Minnesota Lynx in their home opener tonight. The Sky were led by guard Jia Perkins with 24 points and six rebounds, in a 102-85 loss in Minneapolis. Candice Dupree (21 points, 4 assists) and Sylvia Fowles (15 points, 4 rebounds) also finished in double figures.

In four matchups last season, the Dream went 1-3 against the Sky. Their only victory, a 91-84 win at home on July 5, was the team's first victory in franchise history. Tonight's matchup features the WNBA's two newest franchises. Chicago entered the league in 2006 and Atlanta wrapped its inaugural season in 2008.

NEXT OPPONENT

The Dream finish out the weekend road trip with a game against the Connecticut Sun on Sunday at Mohegan Sun Arena. In three matchups with the Sun last season, the Dream went 0-3. The two teams faced off in pre-season this year, with the Dream recording a 76-73 win at home on May 27.

NEWS AND NOTES

MCCOUGHTRY LIVING UP TO EXPECTATIONS

Atlanta Dream rookie forward Angel McCoughtry has lived up to expectations early after being drafted with the first pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft. In her first two WNBA games, the former Louisville star is averaging 12.5 points, 5.5 rebounds, two assists, and has played well on defense, recording five steals. McCoughtry has been efficient off the bench for the Dream, filling the stats sheet in 22 minutes per game.

MILESTONES FOR MIQUE

It took only 2 minutes and 37 seconds in Chamique Holdsclaw's return to the WNBA on Saturday for the guard/forward to reach another milestone in her WNBA career. Holdsclaw's steal at the 7:23 minute mark in the first quarter against the Fever put her over the 300 mark for her career. After scoring 23 points on Saturday's season opener, Holdsclaw was two points shy of 4,000. It would take only 1:46 into the first quarter for her to reach that milestone as she would make both free throws after being fouled by Monique Currie. Holdsclaw is only the ninth player in WNBA history to score more than 4,000 career points.

MILLER PROVIDES SPARK AGAINST MYSTICS

Guard Coco Miller recorded her best game of the season in a 77-71 loss to her former team, the Washington Mystics on June 7. Miller came off the bench to ignite a Dream comeback, scoring 17 points on 8-11 shooting from the field in 23 minutes of action. Miller also recorded five rebounds and two assists.

DREAM SETS FRANCHISE RECORD FOR STEALS

The Dream recorded a franchise record 14 steals in their double overtime victory against the Indiana Fever in last Saturday's season opener. Chamique Holdsclaw, Erika de Souza and Sancho Lyttle all recorded three steals for the Dream. The previous high was 13 steals, set against the Sacramento Monarchs on July 18, 2008.

DE SOUZA AVERAGING DOUBLE-DOUBLE

After missing 22 games last season with a fractured leg, Erika de Souza is off to a strong start in 2009. De Souza recorded a double-double on Saturday against the Fever with 16 points on 8-13 shooting from the field and 17 rebounds, one shy of her career high. In two games this season, de Souza is averaging a double-double with 12 points and 11.5 rebounds per game.

DREAM GETS A MAKEOVER

After finishing last season with a league worst 4-30 record, the Atlanta Dream overhauled the roster. The Dream's roster now features just four players returning from last year's expansion team. Replacing them is a mixture of free agent signees, draft picks and notable veterans. Iziane Castro-Marques, Erika De Souza, Tamera Young and Jennifer Lacy are the only returning players, as the Dream look to rebound from last season's dismal record. De Souza, who is projected to be a starter, missed 22 games last season while plagued by injury.

LOCAL YMCA IS RECIPIENT OF "DREAM" COURT

Last week, Head Coach Marynell Meadors, several Dream players and City Council President Lisa Borders gathered together in the Joseph B. Whitehead Memorial Branch of the Butler Street YMCA on June 2 for the unveiling of the center's brand new basketball court. The court, now adorned in Dream Blue and Red, was awarded to the Butler Street YMCA following a nationwide competition called the "Discover® Card Home Court Challenge," which took place in August 2008. Hundreds of youth basketball players from select WNBA markets took place in the completion which Atlanta won. The Dream then selected the Butler Street YMCA as the recipient of the new court.

Marynell Meadors

GM/Head Coach

Overall Record: 53-73

Record with Atlanta: 5-31

Seasons in League: 7

Seasons with Atlanta: 1

General Manager and Head Coach Marynell Meadors makes her fourth stop in the WNBA, bringing with her more than 35 years of coaching experience. Meadors enters her second season as General Manager and Head Coach of the Dream where she looks to turn around a team that finished 4-30 as an expansion team in 2008. As General Manager of the Dream, Meadors has made some notable acquisitions, including the signings of six-time WNBA All-Star Chamique Holdsclaw and highly coveted free agent center Michelle Snow this offseason.

Prior to joining the Dream, Meadors spent the previous three seasons as an assistant coach for the Washington Mystics. There she helped head coaches Richie Adubato and Tree Rollins to an aggregate record of 50-52, including a playoff appearance in 2006. Meadors aided the Mystics' rapid turnaround in 2007 when the squad narrowly missed the playoffs – they were eliminated on the final day of the season – after an 0-8 start.

Meadors also served as the first General Manager and Head Coach of the now-defunct Charlotte Sting where she led the franchise to the playoffs in each of its first two seasons. She also served as the Sting's director of player and staff personnel.

Following her tenure with the Sting, Meadors moved south where she was hired as the director of scouting for the Miami Sol. With the Sol, her responsibilities included advanced scouting of opponents and player evaluations for the WNBA Draft.

Meadors has an extensive background in the women's college game. For two seasons prior to joining the Mystics, she served as an assistant coach for the University of Pittsburgh, focusing her efforts on recruiting, scheduling, scouting, academics and community involvement.

Meadors was a head coach at Florida State and Tennessee Tech for a combined 30 years. At Florida State, she quickly turned the program around from three straight losing seasons prior to her arrival. The apex of her tenure came in 1991 when the Seminoles won the Metro Conference Championship and advanced to second round of the NCAA Tournament where they fell to Western Kentucky. A year earlier, she drove the Seminoles to the NCAA Tournament, though the squad was unable to advance past the opening round.

Before heading to Florida State, Meadors earned her stripes at Tennessee Tech where she won more than 300 games as head coach. She was the first head coach of the women's basketball program and in her 20 years at the helm, she posted a school-record .723 winning percentage. During her tenure, she received numerous accolades, including two Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) Coach of the Year awards and a Metro Conference Coach of the Year award. While at Tennessee Tech, she steered her Golden Eagles squads to four OVC championships and two Metro Conference titles and became the first major women's college coach to win 350 games at one institution.
