TODAY'S OPPONENT

The Atlanta Dream (1-2) look to finish off their two game road trip against the Connecticut Sun (1-1) today at 3:00 PM EST at the Mohegan Sun Arena. The game will be available on a live webcast at www.atlantadream.net. The Dream are 0-3 all time vs. the Sun.

After losing their first two road games of the season, 77-71 to the Washington Mystics, and 81-73 to the Chicago Sky Friday night at the UIC Pavillion, the Dream look to get their first road win of 2009 today.

The Dream have been led so far by forward Chamique Holdsclaw (17.5 points, 2.5 assists) and forward/center Erika de Souza (12 points, 11.5 rebounds). Angel McCoughtry has provided a spark off the bench, averaging 12.5 points and 5.5 rebounds per game.

The Sun are coming off of a 66-57 victory over the New York Liberty last Sunday at Madison Square Garden. The Sun were led by guard Lindsay Whalen who scored 14 points and collected 12 rebounds, as well as Erin Phillips (13 points, four rebounds) and Asjha Jones (10 points, six rebounds) who also finished in double figures. Connecticut looks to improve upon their 21-13 record from 2008, as they finished in second place in the Eastern Conference while losing to the Detroit Shock in the Conference Finals last season.

In three matchups in 2008, the Atlanta Dream went 0-3 against Connecticut, losing 100-67, 109-101, and 98-72. Tonight's game will be a rematch from the preseason, in which the Dream defeated the Sun 76-73. In the preseason matchup Atlanta F Erika de Souza scored 16 points and collected nine rebounds. In 2007 de Souza played for Connecticut, averaging four points and three rebounds per game. Sunday's matchup will also feature a meeting between college teammates as Connecticut's Keisha Brown played with Atlanta's Coco Miller at the University of Georgia.

NEXT OPPONENT

The Dream will head back to Atlanta to begin a four game home stand, starting with the Washington Mystics this Friday. The Dream lost to Washington earlier this season 77-71 as the Dream were outscored in the second quarter 30-8 in the road loss.

NEWS AND NOTES

FIRST OVERALL PICK McCOUGHTRY LOOKS PROMISING SO FAR

Atlanta Dream rookie forward Angel McCoughtry has lived up to the hype so far. In her first two WNBA games, the first overall pick out of Louisville is averaging 12.5 points, 5.5 rebounds, two assists, and has played well on defense recording five steals.

McCoughtry is putting up these impressive numbers while only averaging 22 minutes per game.

MILESTONES FOR MIQUE

It took only 2 minutes and 37 seconds in Chamique Holdsclaw's return to the WNBA on Saturday for the forward to reach another milestone in her WNBA career. Holdsclaw's steal at the 7:23 minute mark in the first quarter against the Fever put her over the 300 mark for her career. After scoring 23 points on Saturday's season opener, Holdsclaw was two points shy of 4,000. It would take only 1:46 into the first quarter for her to reach that milestone as she would make both free throws after being fouled by Monique Currie. Holdsclaw is only the ninth player in WNBA history to score more than 4,000 career points.

LYTTLE PROVIDES SCORING FROM THE BENCH

In the early portion of the season, Dream forward Sancho Lyttle has provided some inside scoring off of the bench. In two games so far, Lyttle has averaged 11.5 points and five rebounds while averaging 27.5 minutes per game. Lyttle is entering her fifth season in the WNBA, and was acquired by Atlanta in the offseason as a free agent from the Houston Comets. In her four previous seasons with the Comets, Lyttle averaged five points and five rebounds per game.

DREAM SETS FRANCHISE RECORD FOR STEALS

The Dream recorded a franchise record 14 steals in their double overtime victory against the Indiana Fever in last Saturday's season opener. Chamique Holdsclaw, Erika de Souza and Sancho Lyttle all recorded three steals for the Dream. The previous high was 13 steals, set against the Sacramento Monarchs on July 18, 2008.

DE SOUZA DOMINATING INSIDE

After missing 22 games last season with a fractured leg, Erika de Souza is off to a strong start in 2009. De Souza recorded a double-double on Saturday against the Fever with 16 points on 8-13 shooting from the field and 17 rebounds, one shy of her career high.

DREAM GETS A MAKEOVER

After finishing last season with a league worst 4-30 record, the Atlanta Dream overhauled the roster. The Dream's roster now features just four players returning from last year's expansion team. Replacing them is a mixture of free agent signees, draft picks and notable veterans. Iziane Castro-Marques, Erika De Souza, Tamera Young and Jennifer Lacy are the only returning players, as the Dream look to rebound from last season's dismal record. De Souza, who is projected to be a starter, missed 22 games last season while plagued by injury.

LOCAL YMCA IS RECIPIENT OF “DREAM” COURT

Last week, Head Coach Marynell Meadors, several Dream players and City Council President Lisa Borders gathered together in the Joseph B. Whitehead Memorial Branch of the Butler Street YMCA on June 2 for the unveiling of the center’s brand new basketball court. The court, now adorned in Dream Blue and Red, was awarded to the Butler Street YMCA following a nationwide competition called the “Discover® Card Home Court Challenge,” which took place in August 2008. Hundreds of youth basketball players from select WNBA markets took place in the completion which Atlanta won. The Dream then selected the Butler Street YMCA as the recipient of the new court.

NEW OFFSEASON ADDITION GETS ABOVE THE RIM

Michelle Snow, one of the Dream’s big offseason signees, was seen dunking at the Dream’s Media Day. The footage was posted on YouTube last week. Snow averaged ten points and seven rebounds per game last season with the Houston Comets. Snow signed with the Dream in February, and looks to go back to the WNBA All Star game again this season. Lisa Leslie and Candace Parker are the only two players in league history to have dunked in a regular season game.

Marynell Meadors

GM/Head Coach

Overall Record: 53-74

Record with Atlanta: 5-32

Seasons in League: 7

Seasons with Atlanta: 1

General Manager and Head Coach Marynell Meadors makes her fourth stop in the WNBA, bringing with her more than 35 years of coaching experience. Meadors enters her second season as General Manager and Head Coach of the Dream where she looks to turn around a team that finished 4-30 as an expansion team in 2008. As General Manager of the Dream, Meadors has made some notable acquisitions, including the signings of six-time WNBA All-Star Chamique Holdsclaw and highly coveted free agent center Michelle Snow this offseason.

Prior to joining the Dream, Meadors spent the previous three seasons as an assistant coach for the Washington Mystics. There she helped head coaches Richie Adubato and Tree Rollins to an aggregate record of 50-52, including a playoff appearance in 2006. Meadors aided the Mystics' rapid turnaround in 2007 when the squad narrowly missed the playoffs – they were eliminated on the final day of the season – after an 0-8 start.

Meadors also served as the first General Manager and Head Coach of the now-defunct Charlotte Sting where she led the franchise to the playoffs in each of its first two seasons. She also served as the Sting's director of player and staff personnel.

Following her tenure with the Sting, Meadors moved south where she was hired as the director of scouting for the Miami Sol. With the Sol, her responsibilities included advanced scouting of opponents and player evaluations for the WNBA Draft.

Meadors has an extensive background in the women's college game. For two seasons prior to joining the Mystics, she served as an assistant coach for the University of Pittsburgh, focusing her efforts on recruiting, scheduling, scouting, academics and community involvement.

Meadors was a head coach at Florida State and Tennessee Tech for a combined 30 years. At Florida State, she quickly turned the program around from three straight losing seasons prior to her arrival. The apex of her tenure came in 1991 when the Seminoles won the Metro Conference Championship and advanced to second round of the NCAA Tournament where they fell to Western Kentucky. A year earlier, she drove the Seminoles to the NCAA Tournament, though the squad was unable to advance past the opening round.

Before heading to Florida State, Meadors earned her stripes at Tennessee Tech where she won more than 300 games as head coach. She was the first head coach of the women's basketball program and in her 20 years at the helm, she posted a school-record .723 winning percentage. During her tenure, she received numerous accolades, including two Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) Coach of the Year awards and a Metro Conference Coach of the Year award. While at Tennessee Tech, she steered her Golden Eagles squads to four OVC championships and two Metro Conference titles and became the first major women's college coach to win 350 games at one institution.
