TONIGHT'S OPPONENT

Both teams are searching for their second win of the season tonight after winning their home openers on Saturday.

The Dream won a nailbiter, 87-86, against the Indiana Fever last night in double overtime behind a double-double from Erika de Souza. De Souza scored 16 points on 8-13 shooting from the field and was one shy of her career-high in rebounds with 17. Five Dream players scored in double figures, led by Chamique Holdsclaw with 23 points. Angel McCoughtry (15), Sancho Lyttle (10) and Nikki Teasley (10) also finished in double digits scoring.

The Mystics also were victorious in their opener, winning 82-70 against the Connecticut Sun. Three players scored in double figures for the Mystics led by newcomer Lindsay Harding with 12 points and seven assists. Monique Currie added 14 points and Nakia Sanford chipped in with 11.

In three matchups last season, the Dream went 0-3 against the Mystics. Alana Beard led the Mystics in 2008 with, averaging 16 points, four rebounds, and four assists per game. The Mystics finished last season with a record of 10-24, sixth place in the Eastern Conference and seven games shy of a playoff spot. In the three matchups against Atlanta, Washington won 80-74, 72-61, and 81-75. Harding is a new addition to the Mystics, who have also received contributions from rookie Marissa Coleman, the second pick of the 2009 Draft.

In Sunday's matchup, several Dream players will face their former team. Chamique Holdsclaw, Coco Miller, Nikki Teasley and Head Coach Marynell Meadors have all been involved in the Washington Mystics organization. Holdsclaw was Washington's first round draft pick in 1999, and she spent six seasons with the Mystics, earning five All-Star appearances and leading the Mystics in scoring five out of her six seasons with the team. Miller, who spent her first eight seasons in the league with the Mystics, signed with the Dream in May. In two seasons with the Mystics, Dream starting point guard Teasley averaged eight points and four assists per game. Meadors was an assistant coach with Washington prior to being named Head Coach/General Manager of the Dream.

NEXT OPPONENT

The Atlanta Dream head to the Windy City on Friday, June 12 to take on the Chicago Sky. In four matchups last season, the Dream went 1-3 vs. the Sky, winning their first game in franchise history at home 91-84 on June 5, 2008.

NEWS AND NOTES

MILESTONES FOR MIQUE

It took only 2 minutes and 37 seconds in Chamique Holdsclaw's return to the WNBA for the forward to reach another milestone in her WNBA career. Holdsclaw's steal at the 7:23 minute mark in the first quarter put her over the 300 mark for her career. With 23 points, Holdsclaw is now just one field goal away from breaking the 4,000 point plateau. Holdsclaw would become only the ninth WNBA player to reach the 4,000 point mark.

MILLER FACES FORMER TEAM

Coco Miller will face her former team for the first time this afternoon. Miller was drafted in 2001 by the Mystics and spent her first eight seasons with the Mystics before joining the Dream in May. In Washington, Miller averaged six points, three rebounds and two assists per game. Miller was instrumental in the Dream's double overtime victory on Saturday, scoring four of the team's eight points in the double overtime period. Miller finished with six points in the game.

TEASLEY CONTINUES STARTS STREAK AGAINST FORMER TEAM

Point guard Nikki Teasley has started every game of her WNBA career. Teasley, since beginning her career in 2002 with the Los Angeles Sparks, has started all 187 of the WNBA games she has played in, including 67 starts with the Mystics in 2006 and 2007. Teasley has missed some games due to injury and missed the 2008 season following the birth of her daughter, but has started every game played. This afternoon, Teasley is expected to start at point guard against her former Mystics teammates.

HOLDSCLAW COMES FULL CIRCLE

Chamique Holdsclaw will face the Mystics for the first time in Dream uniform, ten years after being selected by Washington with the number one overall pick in the 1999 draft. That year she averaged 17 points per game, which was good enough for WNBA Rookie of the Year honors. In five out of six seasons with the Mystics, Holdsclaw led the team in scoring, averaging 18 points per game and was named a starter for the Eastern Conference in five consecutive All Star Games.

DREAM SETS FRANCHISE RECORD FOR STEALS

The Dream recorded a franchise record 14 steals in their double overtime victory against the Indiana Fever last night. Chamique Holdsclaw, Erika de Souza and Sancho Lyttle all recorded three steals for the Dream. The previous high was 13 steals, set against the Sacramento Monarchs on July 18, 2008.

DE SOUZA DOMINATING INSIDE

After missing 22 games last season with a fractured leg, Erika de Souza is off to a strong start in 2009. De Souza recorded a double-double on Saturday against the Fever with 16 points on 8-13 shooting from the field and 17 rebounds, one shy of her career high.

DREAM GETS A MAKEOVER

After finishing last season with a league worst 4-30 record, the Atlanta Dream overhauled the roster. The Dream's roster now features just four players returning from last year's expansion team. Replacing them is a mixture of free agent signees, draft picks and notable veterans. Iziane Castro-Marques, Erika De Souza, Tamera Young and Jennifer Lacy are the only returning players, as the Dream look to rebound from last season's dismal record. De Souza, who is projected to be a starter, missed 22 games last season while plagued by injury.

LOCAL YMCA IS RECIPIENT OF "DREAM" COURT

Last week, Head Coach Marynell Meadors, several Dream players and City Council President Lisa Borders gathered together in the Joseph B. Whitehead Memorial Branch of the Butler Street YMCA on June 2 for the unveiling of the center's brand new basketball court. The court, now adorned in Dream Blue and Red, was awarded to the Butler Street YMCA following a nationwide competition called the "Discover® Card Home Court Challenge," which took place in August 2008. Hundreds of youth basketball players from select WNBA markets took place in the completion which Atlanta won. The Dream then selected the Butler Street YMCA as the recipient of the new court.

NEW OFFSEASON ADDITION GETS ABOVE THE RIM

Michelle Snow, one of the Dream's big offseason signees, was seen dunking at the Dream's Media Day. The footage was posted on YouTube last week. Snow averaged ten points and seven rebounds per game last season with the Houston Comets. Snow signed with the Dream in February, and looks to go back to the WNBA All Star game again this season. Lisa Leslie and Candace Parker are the only two players in league history to have dunked in a regular season game.

Marynell Meadors

GM/Head Coach

Overall Record: 53-72

Record with Atlanta: 5-30

Seasons in League: 7

Seasons with Atlanta: 1

General Manager and Head Coach Marynell Meadors makes her fourth stop in the WNBA, bringing with her more than 35 years of coaching experience. Meadors enters her second season as General Manager and Head Coach of the Dream where she looks to turn around a team that finished 4-30 as an expansion team in 2008. As General Manager of the Dream, Meadors has made some notable acquisitions, including the signings of six-time WNBA All-Star Chamique Holdsclaw and highly coveted free agent center Michelle Snow this offseason.

Prior to joining the Dream, Meadors spent the previous three seasons as an assistant coach for the Washington Mystics. There she helped head coaches Richie Adubato and Tree Rollins to an aggregate record of 50-52, including a playoff appearance in 2006. Meadors aided the Mystics' rapid turnaround in 2007 when the squad narrowly missed the playoffs – they were eliminated on the final day of the season – after an 0-8 start.

Meadors also served as the first General Manager and Head Coach of the now-defunct Charlotte Sting where she led the franchise to the playoffs in each of its first two seasons. She also served as the Sting's director of player and staff personnel.

Following her tenure with the Sting, Meadors moved south where she was hired as the director of scouting for the Miami Sol. With the Sol, her responsibilities included advanced scouting of opponents and player evaluations for the WNBA Draft.

Meadors has an extensive background in the women's college game. For two seasons prior to joining the Mystics, she served as an assistant coach for the University of Pittsburgh, focusing her efforts on recruiting, scheduling, scouting, academics and community involvement.

Meadors was a head coach at Florida State and Tennessee Tech for a combined 30 years. At Florida State, she quickly turned the program around from three straight losing seasons prior to her arrival. The apex of her tenure came in 1991 when the Seminoles won the Metro Conference Championship and advanced to second round of the NCAA Tournament where they fell to Western Kentucky. A year earlier, she drove the Seminoles to the NCAA Tournament, though the squad was unable to advance past the opening round.

Before heading to Florida State, Meadors earned her stripes at Tennessee Tech where she won more than 300 games as head coach. She was the first head coach of the women's basketball program and in her 20 years at the helm, she posted a school-record .723 winning percentage. During her tenure, she received numerous accolades, including two Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) Coach of the Year awards and a Metro Conference Coach of the Year award. While at Tennessee Tech, she steered her Golden Eagles squads to four OVC championships and two Metro Conference titles and became the first major women's college coach to win 350 games at one institution.
