GENERAL INFORMATION

ARCO ARENA

The Sacramento Monarchs played their first basketball game at ARCO Arena on June 21, 1997 before a crowd of 9,858. Since that inaugural game, fans have continued to flock to ARCO Arena, which seats 17,317, for Monarchs basketball.

Conveniently located near the intersection of I-5 and I-80, ARCO Arena is only five minutes from downtown Sacramento and 90 miles from the San Francisco Bay area.

Designed with a unique configuration for unparalleled sight lines to watch basketball, the 442,000 square-foot, $40,000,000 facility was built without taxpayer dollars. There are approximately 3,900 trees and over 8,000 shrubs on the 105 acres surrounding ARCO Arena with parking for up to 12,000 vehicles in the fully lighted parking lot. Among the indoor amenities are concession stands throughout, featuring 80 service lines, four lounges overlooking the arena interior, eight locker rooms, 297 public toilets and 24-hour security.

ARCO Arena adds to the local economy by employing as many as 1,200 full- and part-time workers throughout each year. Arena patrons have come to the events hungry, consuming 5,000 gallons of soda and 170,000 hot dogs a year!

One of the busiest buildings of its kind in the United States, ARCO Arena hosts nearly 200 events and two million spectators annually. The facility has been home to numerous premier concert events, including nine sellout shows by country music superstar, Garth Brooks, who has attracted over 144,000 fans to his ARCO Arena concerts. Other top acts that have played ARCO Arena have included Paul McCartney, Eric Clapton, Pearl Jam, Elton John, Prince, Reba McEntire and the Rolling Stones. In addition, more than 170,000 people attended the five-day Billy Graham Crusade in October of 1995 in the Crusade's only United States stop.

Other highlighted events at ARCO Arena have included the Ringling Bros. & Barnum and Bailey Circus, NHL Hockey, Arena Football, and the 1994, 1998 and 2002 First and Second Round Western Regional NCAA Men's Division I Basketball Tournaments. The versatile facility has hosted monster trucks, professional wrestling and ice shows featuring the world's finest figure skaters. ARCO Arena will host the 2007 NCAA Men's Division I Basketball First and Second Rounds and the 2007 NCAA Women's Division I Volleyball Championships.

PRACTICE FACILITY

The Kings/Monarchs Training Facility opened its doors in December 2000. The state-of-the-art, $9.1 million, 38,500 square foot facility stands adjacent to the team's home, ARCO Arena.

Ten months after the groundbreaking ceremonies on February 23, 2000, the Kings held their first practice in the facility on December 26, 2000. DPR Construction (Sacramento) was contracted to build the facility that Boora Architects (Portland) had designed.

The facility includes a number of first-class amenities. With 24-hour dedicated access for players, coaches, and basketball staffs, the structure features two full-size basketball courts, locker room facilities for the Kings and Monarchs, and office suites for the coaches and the entire basketball operation staffs of both teams.

Additionally, the facility includes a spacious weight room with the latest in training and fitness equipment and a separate treatment and rehabilitation area. The structure also houses a video scouting room with high-tech videotaping and editing equipment, a practice viewing area for VIPs, a fully equipped media workroom, a visiting team locker room, and a player's lounge.

CONSTRUCTION

- The 10-month fast-track construction project was built in two main sections: a precast tilt panel structure with a steel joist roof that encases two full-size basketball courts, while the balance of the building, containing offices, locker rooms, and training areas, is wood frame construction.

OFFICE SPACE

- 22 offices for Kings/Monarchs coaches and staff with an additional six open-air work-spaces.
- Motion sensor security system, utilizing key and thumb print access from exterior.
- Motion sensitive lighting system to reduce power usage.
- Each office equipped with custom-made, wood-based furniture to fit the needs of the individual.
- Televisions provided in all offices with VCR and/or DVD players in most offices.
- Spacious reception area, featuring a basketball-themed reception/security desk.
- Conference room with a 12-person, solid maple conference table and a 61-inch high definition projection television and in-house sound system.
- Owners, management, and coaches offices have window views of basketball courts.
- 15 new desktop and laptop computers for use both in the office and when on the road. The network is powered by two servers that house the facility's e-mail system, databases, file storage, and remote access software.
- 86 phone lines with each office connected by two lines for a digital phone and an analog modem line.

TRAINING ROOM

- Offices for the trainer, assistant trainer, strength coach, and team physicians for both the Kings and Monarchs.
- Two taping chairs and three treatment tables.
- Three whirlpools for ice treatment, heat massage, and aqua rehabilitation.
- 10-person steam room.

BASKETBALL COURTS

- Two full-size basketball courts designed as exact replicas to the Kings and Monarchs floor at ARCO Arena.
- Permanent hardwood flooring, hand-crafted and painted with Kings and Monarchs logos.
- Four permanent basketball stanchions with an additional four available portable stanchions.
- Fully-functional scoreboard and possession clocks.
- Court area also includes a stereo system powered by six speakers connected to the centralized audio system.

LOCKER ROOMS

- Five separate locker rooms for Kings players, Monarchs players, Kings coaches, Monarchs coaches, and visiting teams.
- Kings and Monarchs locker rooms include 18 locker stalls, 61-inch high definition projection televisions with VCR and DVD, a 10-speaker stereo system connected to the centralized audio system, custom made heightened sinks, and individually monogrammed player robes and towels.

WORKOUT ROOM

- 2,300 square foot area featuring 37 pieces of the latest high-tech cardio and weight training equipment as well as an extensive selection of free weights.
- Six wall-mounted 32-inch televisions and a high fidelity stereo system.
- Stereo and television audio system is designed with individual wireless headphones to personalize television and stereo selection.

EQUIPMENT ROOM

- 36x36 foot area with built-in storage for all the Kings and Monarchs' shoes and apparel.
- Industrial washer and dryers.
- Inside loading and unloading dock.
