

Dear Monarchs MVPs,

Are you ready for the 2009 Monarchs season? I know I am. I want to take this opportunity to say thank you and welcome back to all valued Monarchs MVPs like you!

I also wanted to share a new program we are working on for the 2009 season.

Many of you have asked me about our relationships with local schools and ways in which we can get more schools out to Monarchs games. Our friends at the New York Liberty created a "School Day" program that has seen much success in bringing schools out to games, and we plan to emulate it this year with the Monarchs.

Our preseason game this year against the Phoenix Mercury on May 27, 2009 will be at 11:00 a.m. to accommodate this "School Day" program. We are working with local schools and districts, and we have established a Monarchs curriculum for teachers to use in the classroom. Tickets for this school program will be $10. If you are interested in viewing the curriculum or getting your favorite school involved, visit please SacramentoMonarchs.com to learn more.

Because we know this is a change for you, we are offering each of you, in advance, one complimentary ticket per seat on your account to another regular season game of your choice this season. As an MVP, you also have the ability to utilize your vacation exchange tickets.

We look forward to seeing all of you at the preseason game this season and hopefully seeing an arena packed with children to enjoy our first ever "School Day" program.

If you have further questions or are ready to select the game in which you would like your complimentary tickets, please contact your Monarchs Season Ticket Account Executive.

Thank you for your loyal support of the Monarchs. GO MONARCHS!

Sincerely,
