

be there when the mystics take on breast cancer.

Team up with Washington Mystics and Y-ME for the Walk to Empower Sunday, May 11th 9:00 A.M.

7:30am Check-in at the National Mall – 9:00am Walk

The Walk to Empower is a 3-mile non-competitive walk with over 3,000 participants. Join our team of players, front office staff, fans and Pax for this very inspiring day as we raise money to support Y-ME National Breast Cancer Organization's programs and services that are offered free of charge to anyone touched by Breast Cancer.

Y-ME was founded over a kitchen table in 1978 by the late Ann Marcou and Mimi Kaplan, two breast cancer patients who sought to provide support for fellow breast cancer patients and their loved ones. From these humble beginnings, Y-ME transformed into a national organization that helped revolutionize the way breast cancer patients access information and make decisions about their healthcare. Nearly 30 years later, Y-ME is a premier resource for breast cancer information and services, all provided completely free of charge.

Our goal is to raise $5000 for Y-ME. By purchasing the Y-ME package, you're not only agreeing to be a part of our walk team, you get:

- One (1) ticket to our Breast Health Awareness Game on July 13th
- One (1) ticket to our post-game reception
- Pink team t-shirt

Proceeds will go to Y-ME. We encourage you not to stop there. Those fans that raise $100 will get a special recognition at the Breast Health Awareness Game.
