Responsibilities:

Ball Kids will rotate among many jobs, including but not limited to:

- Setting up the court (pre-game)
- Sweeping, wiping the floor
- Folding warm-ups and towels
- Rebounding for players before the game and during halftime
- Have FUN!!!

Attire:

- Wear provided Shock apparel on game nights (return after the game)
- Shirts must be tucked in
- Gym shoes and socks required, shoes must be tied

Expectations:

In an effort to promote and maintain the professional atmosphere of our program, Ball Kids must follow the policies below. Please consider these policies carefully before applying to the program.

- Perfect attendance and promptness to all assigned games, which fall between May and October
- No autographs, idle chit chat or horsing around while working
- This is a job and must be approached with a commitment to serve others in an unselfish and professional manner
- Arrive to work 2 hours before the game and stay up to an hour after the game
- Once you are working you may not leave the court for any reason
- No eating or drinking during the game
- Be courteous to other ball kids
- No cell phones allowed on the court
- 48 hours notice will need to be given for any missed games

Benefits:

Ball Kids enjoy:

- Two (2) complimentary tickets for family to attend the games assigned
- The closest seat possible to exciting WNBA games all summer long!
