

2nd Annual Connecticut Sun Coaches Clinic With Sun Head Coach Mike Thibault

Saturday, November 19th, 2005
9am to 3pm
Mohegan Sun Convention Center

Coaches at all levels are invited to join Connecticut Sun Head Coach Mike Thibault his assistants, Scott Hawk and Bernadette Mattox along with New York Liberty Head Coach Pat Coyle as they present techniques on developing players and coaching basketball.

CONNECTICUT SUN HEAD COACH MIKE THIBAUT

For the third consecutive season, Mike Thibault led the WNBA's Connecticut Sun to the playoffs, capturing Eastern Conference Championships in 2004 and 2005 and earning back-to-back trips to the WNBA Finals. Hired by the Sun on March 7, 2003, Thibault owns an impressive coaching record that extends well beyond his tenure with the Milwaukee Bucks. Thibault entered the NBA Ranks in 1978 as a scout for the LA Lakers, was promoted director of scouting and assistant coach in 1980, winning two World Championships with the Lakers in 1980, 1982. In addition to the Lakers and Bucks, Thibault also spent time with the Chicago Bulls and the Seattle Sonics.

NEW YORK LIBERTY HEAD COACH PAT COYLE

Pat Coyle was appointed to head coach of the New York Liberty on July 3, 2004, and led team to an 11-7 record during the second half of the regular season. The Liberty went on to eliminate defending champion Detroit on the way to a spot in the 2004 Eastern Conference Finals. In 2005, Coyle led the Liberty to an 18-16 record and another playoff berth. Prior to her current position, Coyle was an assistant coach for the Liberty, where she was responsible for coordinating advance scouting reports and developing and implementing game strategies.
