2011 SKY SEASON NOTES

All-Stars

Sylvia Fowles, Epiphanny Prince and Courtney Vandersloot were named to the 2011 WNBA Eastern Conference All-Star Team. It was Fowles' third All-Star appearance and Prince and Vandersloot's first appearance.

Defense Defense

- The Sky is holding its opponents to a .414 shooting percentage, second best in the WNBA. Against Indiana on June 4, the Sky held the Fever to 30% shooting from the field (21-70), the lowest ever by a Sky opponent.
- The Sky is holding its opponents to 75.0 points per game, fifth best in the league.
- The 55 points scored by Tulsa (7/28/11) was 1 off the team record for fewest scored by an opponent in a game. The team record was tied earlier this year by Tulsa at the Allstate Arena 7/13/11. The record was originally set 6/19/07 vs. Sacramento @ the UIC Pavilion.
- With 11 blocked shots @ Atlanta (6/21/11), the team tied an all-time Sky record for blocks in a game. The mark was last reached @ Minnesota (5/25/07). The Sky averages 5.6 blocks per game, best in the WNBA. The Sky now has blocked over 800 shots in just over 5 seasons including 183 in 2011. Fowles leads the WNBA in blocks at 2.0 per game. Michelle Snow is tied for 6th at 1.3 blocks per game.
- With 183 blocks on the season, the Sky has surpassed the team's single season high of 160 (set in 2010) and is only the 2nd team in WNBA history to reach 180 blocks. The WNBA record is 216 by 2008 LA Sparks.

Rookie of the Year Candidate – Courtney Vandersloot

- All-Star Point Guard Courtney Vandersloot is one of five promising young rookies who have taken the WNBA by storm in 2011. Vandersloot is second among rookies at 3.8 apg. Vandersloot is also seventh in scoring (6.5), and third in minutes per game (22.9) among all rookies.
- Vandersloot's first assist @ Los Angeles (9/10/11) set a new Sky season assist record passing Dominique Canty's 2007 total of 123.
- In her first game as a pro Vandersloot dished out 7 assists against the Fever, which was the second most ever by a Sky rookie. In her first home game she tied a Sky record with three three-pointers in a quarter, and finished 4-4 from beyond the arc, scoring 18 points.

MVP Season for Sylvia Fowles

- Sylvia Fowles is having an MVP caliber season in 2011. She is third in the WNBA in scoring at 19.7 points per game. She recorded 7 consecutive 20 point performances dating from Friday, June 10 to Saturday, June 25. It was the longest streak of her career and a Sky record. The second longest streak for the club is 4 held by Candace Dupree (6/15/07-6/23/07).
- Fowles is also averaging 10.1 rebounds per game, a league second best. Only one player in the 15 year history of the WNBA has averaged 20 points and 10 rebounds in a season – Chamique Holdsclaw (20.5 ppg and 10.9 rpg) for Washington in 2003.
- Fowles broke her own Sky all-time single season record of 606 points vs. Indiana (9/4/11), which she set in 2010. She now has 615 points on the season.
- She also broke the Sky all-time single season record of 85 offensive rebounds vs. Indiana (9/4/11), which was set by Chastity Melvin in 2008. She currently has 89 this season.
- With her fifth rebound @ Los Angeles (9/10/11) Fowles became the all-time leading rebounder for the Sky passing Candace Dupree's mark of 980.
- Fowles' double-double versus Connecticut (6/19/11) gave her 29, the most ever by a Sky player, breaking the team mark set by Candace Dupree (2006-2009). She is second in the league lead this season with 21 double-doubles and had eight in a row from 8/7/11 to 8/28/11, a WNBA single season record.
- Fowles recorded her 200th career blocked shot against the Seattle Storm on 7/19 which made her the 19th leading shot blocker in WNBA history.
- With 12 rebounds against Atlanta (7/9/11), Fowles recorded her 34th double-digit rebounding game for her career passing Candace Dupree to become 1st on all-time Sky list for number of games with 10+ rebounds.
- Fowles has scored in double figures in 67 straight games from 8/15/10 thru 9/4/11, the fourth longest streak in WNBA history. Houston's Cynthia Cooper owns the record with 92 games from 6/21/97 thru 6/1/00.
- Fowles now owns the following Sky single season records: Scoring average; points, double-doubles, field goals made, blocks, as well as offensive, defensive and total rebounds. She also holds Sky career records in blocks and defensive rebounds. She now has 65 consecutive games in double figure points and she recorded seven straight games of 20+ points earlier this season, which are also both Sky records.

Elite Company – Michelle Snow

- With her second rebound against the San Antonio Silver Stars on Tuesday, June 28, Michelle Snow reached 2,000 boards for her career becoming only the 12th player in WNBA history to reach that milestone. The Sky forward also became the 7th player in the league's history to record 2,800 points, 2,000 rebounds and 300 blocks in a career.
- Snow also jumped up to 8th on the WNBA all-time blocks list with two swats against New York on July 10.
- Michelle Snow reached 200 consecutive games played against Indiana on 8/7. Her current streak of 211 games is the 13th longest streak in WNBA history (STATS LLC). The all-time NBA record is 263 set by Dawn Staley in 2006 and tied by former Sky forward Chasity Melvin in 2007.

Elite Company – Dominique Canty

- Canty played in her 364th career game vs. Minnesota (8/12/11) moving to 11th all-time in the WNBA.
- She played her 9,000th minute @ Los Angeles (9/10/11) becoming the 22nd player in the history of the WNBA to do so.

SKY 2011 SEASON NOTES

The WNBA's Most Improved Player – Epiphanny Prince

- Epiphanny Prince has increased her season averages across the board. She is averaging 13.9 points, 3.1 assists and 2.4 steals per game compared to 9.8 points, 2.7 assists and 1.6 steals in 2010.
- Epiphanny Prince 's 10 points in the second OT vs. Connecticut (6/23/11) not only sealed the victory, but was a club record for points scored in an overtime period.

Attendance Records

- The Sky crushed their season attendance record, drawing 94,116 to Allstate Arena in 2011. The former season mark of 72,959 was set in 2010.
- The Sky set a single game attendance record vs. Tulsa on July 13 with 13,838 nearly doubling the club's prior single game record of 6,950 vs. San Antonio on July 14, 2010.
- In 2011, the Sky hosted five games that were in the top ten most well attended games in team history. In addition to the San Antonio game, 6/10 vs. Connecticut, 7/19 vs. Seattle, 7/30 vs. Los Angeles and 8/12 vs. Minnesota made the list.

Breaking Records

In the (6/23/11) 2OT win over Connecticut, the Sky broke numerous team records:

- Most Points in Game: 107 (Previous 105 @ Phoenix 6/20/08 (1 OT))
- Note: Sky is the only current WNBA franchise to have never scored 100 points in a regulation game (record is 99 vs. Pho on 8/19/09). Tulsa has not scored 100 points but the franchise reached that number many times while in Detroit.
- Most FG in Game: 43 (Previous 40 @ Phoenix 6/20/08 (1 OT))
- Most Defensive Rebounds in Game: 35 (Previous 34 @ Washington 6/1/07)
- Most Assists in Game: 28 (Previous 27 vs. Phoenix 7/27/07 and vs. Connecticut 7/1/10)
- It was also the 1st game in team history where 3 Sky players scored 20 or more points in a game (Prince 25, Fowles 24 & Young 20). The team has had 15 games with 2 players scoring 20 or more.

Record Performance

The Sky broke a few records in their 72-54 win over Tulsa on June 13. Chicago set marks in team steals (15), fast break points (18), points against (54) and field goals made against (17) on its way to a convincing home win.

Winning Streaks

The Sky's early season three game winning streak (6/10/11 thru 6/17/11) was one of the franchise's best behind a mark of 4 (5/27/10 thru 6/5/10) and is only the third time in franchise history to have such a streak.

First Win of 2011 at Home Opener

The Sky played their hearts out against the Sun in the team's home opener in front of a record opening crowd of 6,609. Vandersloot the first shot of the game (a three) and the Sky never fell behind, either leading or tied the entire game.

Successful History

Rookie Head Coach and General Manager Pokey Chatman has won at many levels: the EuroLeague Championship in 2010, three consecutive Final Fours at LSU and two gold medals with USA basketball – one as a player.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Being active in the community is a high priority for the Chicago Sky. The Sky is set to participate in numerous community projects throughout the year and focuses on building relationships with community groups and organizations. By getting involved in communities throughout the Chicagoland area, the Sky hopes to inspire fans to get involved.

Anti-Cruelty Society

On June 6th the Sky players participated in a photo shoot with the Anti-Cruelty Society. Starting in July a calendar featuring the players and pets from the Anti-Cruelty Society will be available for a $10 donation. $5 will go to the Anti-Cruelty Society and the other $5 will be donated to Sky Cares.

Sky Cares

The Sky Cares' mission is to help build girls' self-esteem and provide girls and young women with positive mentors. Sky Cares was founded in April, 2008 and successfully launched its signature programs, Chicago Sky Fitness Festival and Learn to Soar, to actively support the team's mission through a series of workshops and game experiences. The Sky Cares Foundation, a 501c3 non-profit foundation linked to the WNBA's Chicago Sky, wants to challenge the status quo that has been created for girls.

POKEY CHATMAN

HEAD COACH AND GENERAL MANAGER

Pokey Chatman was named head coach of the Chicago Sky on Oct. 29, 2010. The 2011 season marks her first with the WNBA. She is the Sky's fourth head coach.

Chatman comes to the Sky from three years of coaching professional women's basketball in Russia and 15 years on the coaching staff at LSU, her alma mater.

She served two seasons as an assistant coach of Russian Spartak Moscow Region before being promoted to head coach in 2010. That year, Chatman led the team to a perfect 16-0 record in the Euroleague, the most competitive European basketball league, and also claimed the esteemed 2010 Euroleague Championship.

Chatman also coached the Slovakian national women's basketball team from 2008-2010. In 2009 she took the traditionally unsuccessful Slovakian squad to the EuroBasket in Riga, where they narrowly missed a spot in the FIBA World Championship.

Chatman was named head coach of the LSU Lady Tigers in the 2003-2004 season, when Sue Gunter was forced to take medical leave mid-season. Chatman went a remarkable 47-3 in her first 50 games as head coach, the second best starting record in women's basketball history. As head coach, she took the Tigers to three consecutive finishes in the Final Four. For her work in her first full season as a head coach, she was named the U.S. Basketball Writers Association National Coach of the Year, Women's Basketball Coaches Association National Coach of the Year, Naismith National Coach of the Year and the Victor Award Female Coach of the Year. Chatman earned a coaching record of 90-14 with the Lady Tigers in three seasons as head coach and 15 seasons overall.

She has earned two gold medals with USA basketball, first as a player for the Junior National Team in 1987, and then as an assistant coach of the World University team in 2005.

As an LSU point guard from 1987-1991, Chatman led the Lady Tigers to their first ever SEC Tournament title in 1991, and earned recognition as the tournament's Most Valuable Player. In her playing career at LSU, she was named All-SEC three times, named Kodak All-American in 1991, and set 20 school records. Chatman earned her Bachelor's Degree from LSU in December of 1991. She is originally from Ama, Louisiana.

Career Notes

How Acquired: Signed with the Sky on Feb. 12th as a free agent. Originally drafted by Detroit in the third round (29th overall) of the WNBA Draft, May 4, 1999.

Canty is playing in her 13th season in the WNBA. Canty played her season most 29 minutes @ Los Angeles and scored a season high 16 points. Versus Minnesota (8/12/11), Canty moved to 11th all-time in the WNBA with 364 career games. She led off the bench with nine points in 17 minutes against Connecticut (6/10/11). She only needs 17 more steals to reach the 144 mark to become second on the all-time steals list for the Sky. She currently sits 11th on the all-time WNBA assists list and 44th on the all-time WNBA scoring list. In the past 4 seasons with Chicago she averaged 8.2 points and 3.7 assists per game. Canty reached her 9,000th minute played in the WNBA @ Los Angeles (9/10/11), the 22nd player ever to do so.

CAREER NOTES

How Acquired: Selected 2nd overall by the Chicago Sky in the 2008 WNBA Draft.

Sylvia Fowles was named Player of the Month for August. She was also named Player of the Week three times in 2011 (8/28/11), (8/14/11) and (7/18/11). She is third in the league in scoring (19.7 ppg), second in rebounds per game (10.2), first in blocks per game (2.0) and first in field goal percentage (.596). She scored her 1500th career point @ Connecticut (8/9/11). She became first on the all-time Sky list with her 34th career 10+ rebounding game vs. Atlanta (7/9/11). Fowles played in her third WNBA all-star game this season producing six points, six rebounds and two steals and helping the East to a 118-113 victory. Fowles recorded her 200th block vs. Seattle (7/19/11). She scored 20+ points in 7 consecutive games from 6/10 to 6/25 (23, 23, 27, 23, 21, 24 and 28), a club record. Fowles also set a Sky record with her 35th consecutive game scoring in double figures vs. Washington (6/11/11). Fowles holds the following Sky records: Season scoring average; points, double-doubles, field goals made, blocks, total rebounds and defensive rebounds in a single season; and career blocks and defensive rebounds.
